Quilts from the Depression era, original and reproduction quilts

August 1-2, 2025

Edie McGinnis

Friday evening (6:00-7:30): Feed sacks and feed sack quilts. All textiles and quilts shown are vintage, not reproductions.

Saturday morning (10:00-11:30): Finders Keepers is based on a book Edie wrote in 2015 about a cache of quilts found in an abandoned farmhouse in Bloomfield, Iowa. What quilter doesn't dream of finding a treasure like that? The original quilts were reproduced using reproduction fabrics and in modern, contemporary fabrics as well for an updated look.
